

Duplex Architekten

Anne Kaestle (CH)

www.duplex-architekten.ch

Anne Kaestle (Zurich)

Architect SIA, AKJAA and BDA

Born in Germany (1975*) Anne Kaestle studied architecture at the TU Karlsruhe (now the KIT) and the Royal Academy of the Arts in Copenhagen before completing her studies at the Accademia di Architettura in Mendriso under Peter Zumthor. Anne subsequently went on to work in Buenos Aires with MSGSSS and later in Zürich with Marcel Meili, Markus Peter Architects. She formed the Zürich based Duplex Architekten alongside Dan Schürch in 2007. Renowned projects include «Mehr als Wohnen» a Housing scheme which explored ideas in communal living for which they were awarded the 2014 DEUBAU-Prize for young architects. Duplex is consists of three offices located in Zurich, Düsseldorf and Hamburg.

